

1. Applicability; Acceptance.

- 1.1 These Greene, Tweed & Co., LLC Purchase Terms and Conditions (these “Terms”) shall be applicable to each electronic or written purchase order (each a “Purchase Order”) issued by Greene, Tweed & Co., LLC or one of its affiliate companies (each, a “Buyer”) to the party to whom the Purchase Order is addressed (“Seller”). Such Purchase Order is Buyer’s offer to purchase the goods (the “Goods”) identified in the Purchase Order. The Purchase Order, together with these Terms (collectively, the “Agreement”) comprise the entire agreement between Buyer and Seller, and supersede all prior or contemporaneous understandings, agreements, negotiations, representations and warranties, and communications, both written and oral. These terms will prevail over any of Seller’s general terms and conditions, quotation, proposal or other offer submitted by Seller, regardless of whether or when Seller has submitted its sales confirmation or any such terms, quotation, proposal or offer (“Seller Terms”). This Agreement expressly limits Seller’s acceptance to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Fulfillment or other performance under a Purchase Order constitutes acceptance of these Terms. Neither Buyer’s failure otherwise to object to any Seller Terms, nor the acceptance or use of Goods hereunder, nor any other act or omission by Buyer, shall be deemed an acceptance of any additional or different terms or conditions from those contained herein. Any proposal by Seller or attempt by Seller to vary in any degree any of the terms or conditions of these Terms shall not operate as a rejection of the Purchase Order unless such variances are in the terms of the description, quantity, price or delivery schedule of the Goods that are set forth in the Purchase Order, but shall be deemed a material alteration hereof, and the Purchase Order and these Terms shall be deemed accepted by the Seller without said additional or different terms.
- 1.2 If Seller has not otherwise accepted the Purchase Order, Seller, by commencing work, or notifying Buyer of its commencement of work or by shipping any Goods, shall be deemed to have accepted all the terms and conditions contained herein and no other terms or conditions. This Agreement is not binding on Buyer until Seller notified Buyer in writing that Seller accepts the Purchase Order. Buyer may withdraw the Purchase Order at any time before it is accepted by Seller.
- 1.3 These Terms apply to any repaired or replacement Goods provided by Seller hereunder.
- 1.4 Buyer is not obligated to any minimum purchase or future purchase obligations under this Agreement.

2. Price.

- 2.1 All prices stated by Buyer on or with the Purchase Order shall (a) constitute the entire consideration to Seller for all Goods sold to Buyer pursuant to such Purchase Order and all parts to and instructions for the assembly, use and care of such Goods, services, labor, boxing, crating, packaging, shipping and handling, transportation costs to the delivery location set forth on the Purchase Order (the “Delivery Location”), insurance, freight, duty drawback rights transferable from Seller to Buyer and warranties; and (b) be deemed to include all applicable U.S. and non-U.S., international, Federal, state, provincial and local taxes and customs duties, the amount of which taxes and duties shall be itemized separately on Seller’s invoice. If no price is stated in the Purchase Order, the Price shall be the price set out in Seller’s published price list in force as of the Purchase Order date. No increase in the Price is effective, whether due to increased material, labor, or transportation costs or otherwise, without the prior written consent of Buyer
- 2.2 Any reduction in applicable freight rates, custom duties and taxes from those in force on the date of the Purchase Order, whether separately stated or not, shall be paid to Buyer or credited against the price of the Goods. Buyer’s payment or promise of payment for Goods shall not constitute acceptance thereof. Seller shall inform Buyer of the existence of any duty drawback rights transferable from Seller to Buyer and upon request, supply such documents as may be necessary for Buyer to acquire such rights. Seller shall credit against the price of the Goods or reimburse Buyer for any custom duties owed or paid by Buyer, for which drawback rights exist and which are not validly and promptly transferred by Seller to Buyer.
- 2.3 Seller represents and warrants that the price for the Goods is the lowest price charged by Seller to any of its external buyers for similar volumes of similar Goods. If (i) Seller charges any other buyer a lower price, Seller must apply that price to all Goods under this Agreement, or (ii) the prevailing market price per unit for like Goods offered in similar or lesser quantities is lower than that offered to Buyer, then Seller must apply the lower price to all Goods under this Agreement, effective as of the earliest date on which such lower price was offered by Seller or became available in the market. If Seller fails to meet the lower price, Buyer, at its option, may terminate any Purchase Order or this Agreement without liability.

2.4 Seller shall issue an invoice to Buyer on or any time after the completion of delivery and only in accordance with the Agreement. Unless different payment terms are specified in the Purchase Order, the payment terms for all Goods supplied by Seller to Buyer shall be ninety (90) days from receipt of the invoice, except for any amounts disputed by Buyer in good faith. In the event of a payment dispute, Buyer shall deliver a written statement to Seller no later than five (5) business days prior to the date payment is due on the disputed invoice listing all disputed items and providing a reasonably detailed description of each disputed item. Amounts not so disputed are deemed accepted and must be paid, notwithstanding disputes on other items, within the period set forth in this Section 2.4. The parties shall seek to resolve all such disputes expeditiously and in good faith. Seller shall continue performing its obligations under the Purchase Order notwithstanding any such dispute. Buyer shall not be liable for any interest or any late or penalty charges for failure to pay Seller's invoices when due.

3. Packaging and Shipping; Delivery.

3.1 Seller shall deliver the Goods in the quantities and on the date(s) specified in a Purchase Order or as otherwise agreed in writing by the parties (the "Delivery Date"). If no delivery date is specified, Seller shall deliver the Goods within thirty (30) days of Seller's receipt of the Purchase Order. Timely delivery of the Goods is of the essence. If Seller fails to deliver the Goods in full on the Delivery Date, Buyer may terminate the Purchase Order immediately by providing written notice to Seller and Seller shall indemnify Buyer against any losses, claims, damages, and reasonable costs and expenses directly attributable to Seller's failure to deliver the Goods on the Delivery Date. Buyer has the right to return any Goods delivered prior to the Delivery Date at Seller's expense and Seller shall redeliver such Goods on the Delivery Date.

3.2 Seller shall be responsible for all costs to handle, package, store and transport the Goods to the Delivery Location during Buyer's normal business hours or as otherwise directed by Buyer. Delivery shall be made in accordance with the Incoterms Rules on the face of the Purchase Order, or if no delivery terms are specified, Goods shall be delivered DAP to the Delivery Location in accordance with Incoterms 2020.

3.3 Buyer's purchase order number must appear on all invoices, correspondence, packages and bills of lading. Buyer may specify the method of transportation and the type and number of packing slips and other documents to be provided with each shipment. Seller shall comply, in all respects, with Buyer's instructions and requirements, as amended or updated from time to time and as incorporated in the Agreement by reference, including delivery, logistics, packaging, labeling and hazardous materials instructions and requirements. For any cross-border transactions, Seller shall be the Importer and/or Exporter of Record for Goods.

3.4 Prior to and with the shipment of the Goods purchased hereunder, Seller shall furnish to Buyer sufficient warning and notice in writing (including appropriate labels on Goods, containers and packing) of any Hazardous Material which is an ingredient or a part of any of the Goods, together with such special handling instructions as may be necessary to advise Buyer and Buyer's carriers of how to exercise the measure of care and precaution which will best prevent bodily injury or property damage in the handling, transportation, processing, use or disposal of the Goods, containers and packing shipped to Buyer. For purposes of these Terms, "Hazardous Materials" are, or contain dangerous items, chemicals, contaminants, substances, pollutants, or any materials that are defined as hazardous or prohibited by relevant local, state, national, or international law, regulations and standards. Upon request by Buyer, Seller shall promptly furnish to Buyer, current material safety data sheets for the Goods purchased hereunder.

4. No Substitutions; Inspection and Rejection of Nonconforming Goods.

4.1 Without the prior express written approval of Buyer, Seller may not supply to Buyer Goods that are alternatives to, substitutions for or like the Goods that Buyer has ordered pursuant to a Purchase Order.

4.2 Buyer has the right to inspect the Goods delivered and no inspection or failure to inspect will reduce or alter Seller's obligations under the Agreement. Buyer, at its sole option, may inspect all or a sample of the Goods, and may reject all or any portion of the Goods if it determines the Goods are nonconforming, defective, or substitute or alternative Goods. If Buyer rejects any portion of the Goods, Buyer has the right, effective upon written notice to Seller, to: (a) rescind the Purchase Order in its entirety; (b) accept the Goods at a reasonably reduced price; or (c) reject the Goods and require replacement of the rejected Goods. If Buyer requires replacement of the Goods, Seller shall, at its expense, promptly replace the nonconforming Goods and pay for all related expenses, including, but not limited to, transportation and insurance costs for the return of the defective goods and the delivery of replacement Goods. If Seller fails to timely deliver replacement Goods, Buyer may replace them with goods from a third party and charge Seller the cost thereof and terminate the Agreement for cause pursuant to Section 6. Any inspection or other action by Buyer under this Section shall not reduce or otherwise affect Seller's obligations under the Agreement, and Buyer shall have the right to conduct further inspections after Seller has carried out its remedial actions. Payment for nonconforming Goods will not constitute an acceptance of them, or limit or impair Buyer's right to assert any legal or equitable remedy. Buyer's count shall be conclusive on all shipments not accompanied by a packing slip. Excess Goods may be returned by Buyer at Seller's expense.

5. Title and Risk of Loss. Notwithstanding any Incoterm 2020 to the contrary, Seller shall bear all risk of loss or damage until delivery to the Delivery Location and acceptance by Buyer. All Goods may, at Seller's cost, be inspected by Buyer at any time or place, and such inspection shall not waive, diminish or otherwise affect any of Seller's express or implied warranties and shall not constitute acceptance of any articles. Buyer shall be deemed to have accepted Goods only after a reasonable time for discovery of defects, even if Buyer has previously inspected Goods.

6. Term and Termination.

6.1 The Agreement shall be in full force and effect from the date of acceptance (as set forth in Section 1) for such period of time set forth on the most recent Purchase Order. In the event no effective term is set forth on the Purchase Order, the effective term of the Agreement shall be for the life of the program for which such Goods are applied, unless otherwise terminated per these Terms.

6.2 Buyer may terminate any Purchase Order, in whole or in part, at any time with or without cause for undelivered Goods on five (5) business days' prior written notice to Seller. In addition to any remedies that may be provided under these Terms, Buyer may terminate any Purchase Order with immediate effect upon written notice to the Seller, either before or after the acceptance of the Goods, if Seller has not performed or complied with any of these Terms, in whole or in part. If (i) a direct or indirect change in control or ownership of the Seller occurs without Buyer's prior written consent, or (ii) the Seller becomes insolvent, files a petition for bankruptcy or commences or has commenced against it proceedings relating to bankruptcy, receivership, reorganization or assignment for the benefit of creditors, then the Buyer may terminate any Purchase Order immediately upon written notice to Seller. If Buyer terminates a Purchase Order for any reason, Seller's sole and exclusive remedy is payment for the Goods received and accepted by Buyer prior to the termination. Buyer shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, special, incidental, punitive or consequential damages or payment resulting from its cancellation of all or any part of any Purchase Order.

6.3 Upon Seller's receipt of a notice of termination of a Purchase Order, Seller shall promptly (i) stop work as directed by the notice (ii) place no further subcontract/orders related to the terminated portion of the Purchase Order, (iii) terminate, or if requested by Buyer, assign all subcontracts/orders to the extent they relate to work terminated; (iv) deliver all completed work and work in process; and (v) provide any further supplier transition support reasonably requested by Buyer

7. Audit/Quality Control. Buyer may, at its discretion, conduct audits of Seller and Seller's suppliers' ("Suppliers") performance under the terms of the Agreement and all of Seller's contracts with Suppliers ("Supplier Contracts"). Seller shall include in its Supplier Contracts provisions to allow Buyer to determine and verify the quality of work performed and material supplied at any place, including, but not limited to, the plants of Seller and all Suppliers, and at all production stages, of materials intended for incorporation into Buyer's products. Such audits by Buyer will be performed with the knowledge of and jointly with Seller or Supplier (as applicable). Seller shall (and shall cause each Supplier to) permit Buyer, its customers, government personnel, and any designated representatives of any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Inspecting Persons"), to arrange visits to Seller's offices, manufacturing facilities and warehouses, and shall arrange for such Inspecting Persons to visit the offices, manufacturing facilities, and warehouses of Seller's Suppliers, to conduct audits with respect to (i) the products and materials being purchased under any Purchase Order and all Supplier Contracts, and (ii) a review of delivery, quality programs, and stock levels of both dedicated and standard inventory items. Seller shall (i) make all products covered by any Purchase Order with batch and lot numbers, and (ii) cause each Supplier to make all products supplied to Seller with batch and lot numbers, so that all such products may be traced and identified in the event of quality problems.

8. Control of Records. Records shall consist of all books, written and/or electronic records, and other documentation relating to work done and products, materials or services supplied in connection with any Purchase Order. Seller shall make, and arrange to have all Suppliers make, all such books, records, and documentation available for examination and copying by Buyer and/or Buyer's authorized representatives. Record control related to Buyer's Purchase Orders and the Goods shall be in accordance with Seller's standard procedure for control of records, such procedure to meet, at a minimum, the requirements of ISO 9001 and/or AS9100. Records shall remain legible, readily identifiable and retrievable within seventy-two (72) hours of Buyer's request to Seller. Records with respect to any Purchase Order shall be retained and remain available for review for a period of ten (10) years after the earlier of the delivery of Goods pursuant to such Purchase Order or termination of such Purchase Order.

9. Warranties.

9.1 Seller warrants to Buyer that from the Delivery Date through the end of the period for which Buyer's customer warrants the Goods to end users (the "Warranty Period"), to Buyer all Goods will (i) be merchantable, (ii) be free from any defects in workmanship, material and design, (iii) be new and the best of their respective kinds (unless otherwise specified) and of the highest quality, workmanship and material, (iv) be fit for their intended purpose and operate as intended, (v) be free and clear of all liens, security interests or other encumbrances; (vi) not infringe or misappropriate any third party's patent or other intellectual property rights; (vii) be adequately contained, packaged, and labeled, and conform to the promises and affirmations of fact made on the container and label, if any, (viii) conform exactly to (x) samples, models, drawings and specifications which Buyer has provided to Seller and (y) samples, models, drawings and specifications which Seller has provided to Buyer and which Buyer has approved. Seller hereby provides any and all express and implied warranties that may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade. In addition, any and all express and implied warranties provided to Buyer hereunder extend to any person who may reasonably be expected to use, consume, or be affected by the Goods.

9.2 Buyer in no way guarantees any quantities to Seller, has no responsibility for inventories maintained by Seller and is not liable for any losses or costs resulting from obsolescence or restocking of unused or returned Goods.

10. Indemnification and Insurance.

10.1 Seller shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer and Buyer's parent company and their subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns and their respective officers, directors, owners, employees and agents and Buyer's customers (collectively, "Indemnitees") from and against any and all claims, suits and actions (whether or not groundless), damages (including all direct, indirect, special, incidental and consequential damages), costs, liabilities, expenses and losses, including, without limitation, all fees and expenses of lawyers and other professionals, court costs, all other costs of investigation and litigation and reasonable lost profits, (collectively, referred to as "Losses") arising out of, resulting directly or indirectly from or occurring in connection with the Goods purchased from Seller or Seller's negligence, willful misconduct, breach or default of the Agreement (including without limitation Losses due to death or injuries to persons and/or property damage resulting directly or indirectly, from the acts or omissions of Seller, its employees, agents or contractors in the performance of any Purchase Order, whether or not negligent or amounting to a breach hereof). Seller shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer and any Indemnitee against any and all Losses arising out of, resulting directly or indirectly from, or in connection with any claim that use of possession of the Goods infringes, dilutes or misappropriates the patent, copyright, trade secret or other intellectual property right of any third party. (For the avoidance of doubt, each of the following shall be a default of this Agreement subject to indemnification by Seller: (a) Seller fails to make delivery of the exact quantity of Goods at the Delivery Location on the Delivery Date; or (b) Seller breaches or fails to perform (whether material or not) any of the warranties or other terms or conditions of the Agreement.

10.2 In the event of any third-party claim subject to indemnification hereunder (a "Claim"), Buyer may, at its sole option (i) tender such Claim to Seller to defend using lawyers and other professionals acceptable to Buyer in its discretion, or (ii) defend such Claim by counsel of Buyer's choosing and Seller shall reimburse Buyer for all reasonable costs of such defense, and in either case Seller shall indemnify and hold Buyer harmless from and against all Losses arising out of or relating to such Claim. If Buyer tenders the defense of a Claim to Seller and Seller accepts such defense, then Seller shall be conclusively deemed to have agreed that such Claim is subject to indemnification hereunder and that Seller has no claim or counterclaim against Buyer, all of which shall be deemed to have been waived. If Seller assumes the defense of a Claim and thereafter fails to vigorously defend such Claim, Buyer shall have the right at its option to assume the defense of such Claim and Seller shall remain obligated to indemnify Buyer hereunder. If Seller assumes the defense of a Claim, it will not settle or compromise such Claim without the prior written consent of Buyer.

10.3 Unless expressly waived in writing by Buyer, Seller shall maintain the following policies throughout the effective term of the Agreement, and name Buyer as an additional insured: (i) comprehensive General Liability insurance covering bodily injury, property damage, contractual liability, products liability and completed operations in an amount of no less than five-million U.S. Dollars ($5,000,000.00 USD); (ii) all risk property perils insurance covering the full replacement value of Buyer Property while in Seller's care, custody or control and naming Buyer as loss payee; (iii) worker's compensation insurance with coverage

Seller's purchase of appropriate insurance coverage or the furnishing of certificates shall not release Seller of its obligations or liabilities under the Agreement. If requested, Seller shall send a "Certificate of Insurance" evidencing Seller's compliance with these requirements. Insurance maintained pursuant to this Section shall not be considered primary with respect to the interest of Buyer and is not contributory with any insurance which Buyer may carry. Seller agrees that Seller, Seller's insurer(s) and anyone claiming by, through, under or on Seller's behalf shall have no claim, right of action or right of subrogation against Buyer and its customers based on any loss or liability insured against under the foregoing insurance. The amount of insurance required by Buyer, and maintained by Seller, shall not constitute a limitation of liability. The above-referenced insurance limits can be met via each policy or via a combination of these policies and an excess/umbrella liability insurance. Seller must maintain continuity of coverage for three (3) years following termination, expiration and/or completion of the effective term of the Agreement.

11. Force Majeure: Labor Strikes.

11.1 Seller will, at Seller's expense, take such actions as are necessary or appropriate to ensure the uninterrupted supply of Goods to Buyer for not less than 30 days during any foreseeable or anticipated labor disruption and/or the expiration of any of Seller's labor contracts. This Section shall not constitute a waiver of and is without prejudice to, any and all of Buyer's other rights and remedies under the Agreement or applicable law, each of which are hereby reserved.

11.2 The parties shall not be responsible for any failure to perform (including, without limitation, Buyer's acceptance of Goods) under the Agreement due to causes beyond their control (each, a "Force Majeure Event"). In no event, shall Seller be entitled to price adjustment, compensation or other financial relief under the Agreement as a result of a Force Majeure Event. If the delay lasts more than thirty (30) days, or if Seller does not provide adequate assurances that the delay will cease within thirty (30) days, Buyer may terminate the affected Purchase Order(s) upon written notice and Buyer shall have no liability related to such termination.

12. Changes. Buyer may, in its sole discretion, from time to time, by notice to Seller, make reasonable changes, or direct Seller to make changes, to the drawings, specifications, materials, packaging, testing, quantity, time or method of delivery or shipment, or otherwise reasonably change any Purchase Order. At Seller's request, with appropriate supporting documentation, the parties may agree upon an equitable adjustment to the pricing and times for performance as a result of Buyer's changes. Purchase Order changes must be in writing signed by Buyer's authorized representative. Seller shall not change the design of the Goods, sub-suppliers, or change or relocate (from the facilities approved by Buyer) the production, tooling, equipment, manufacture or assembly of the Goods, or change the location from which the Goods are shipped, without the written consent of an authorized representative of Buyer.

All Buyer Property shall be held at the Seller's risk, and unless Buyer has notified Seller to the contrary, shall be kept in first-class condition, shall be replaced by Seller when necessary at Seller's sole cost and shall be kept insured by the Seller at the Seller's expense while in its custody in an amount equal to the replacement cost thereof, with loss payable to the Buyer. Copies of policies or certificates of such insurance shall be furnished to Buyer on demand. Buyer Property shall be conspicuously marked "Property of Greene, Tweed & Co., LLC." by Seller, shall not be commingled with the property of Seller or with that of a third party, and shall not be moved from Seller's premises without Buyer's prior written approval.
